IMPASSE APPEAL CASES RELATED TO A RECENT DECISION MADE BY THE LOS ANGELES CITY COUNCIL ON ISSUES RELATED TO THE LOS ANGELES INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT (LAX)

Enclosed you will find a copy of the Impasse Appeal hearing packet for the above-referenced project scheduled for Airport Land Use Commission (ALUC) public hearing on Wednesday, September 11, 2013 at 9:00 a.m.

In addition the duties assigned to all ALUCs in California, the Los Angeles County ALUC has the responsibility to hear and act upon impasse appeals related to airport land use planning disputes between public agencies. This authority is specified in the State Aeronautics Act, Public Utilities Code (PUC) Section 21670.2. Three appeals have been submitted to the ALUC under this section, one from the City of Culver City, City of Ontario and the other from San Bernardino County. These public agencies have informed the ALUC that they have each reached an impasse with the City of Los Angeles over specific issues related to that city's decision to approve the General Plan amendment and LAX SPAS.
