KERN COUNTY

ANTELOPE VALLEY - PROPOSED SEA

Base Layers

- Antelope Valley SEA (Significant Ecological Area)
- Antelope Valley ETA (Ecological Transition Area)
- Surrounding SEAs
- Open Space (unincorporated areas - transparent)
- Open Space (incorporated cities - transparent)
- Unincorporated Area (blue text)
- Cities (red text - transparent white)

Overlays

California Natural Diversity Database

- Radius of general occurrence from 1/10 mile to 5 miles
- Occurrence within an 80 meter radius, a specific bounded area, or non-specific bounded area
- River, Stream, or Channel
- Fish and Wildlife Critical Habitat
- SEA Adopted
- FEMA Floodplain
- San Andreas Fault Zone

Current as of: May 2011

Scale in Feet

0 3,000 6,000 12,000 18,000

LOS ANGELES COUNTY
Department of Regional Planning
320 W. Temple St.
Los Angeles, CA 90012

Note:

The absence of species occurrences does not indicate the absence of those species in a parcel. Information about particular species occurring in areas where biological surveys have not been conducted or species data not reported to State or Federal agencies is not shown on this map.

SAN BERNARDINO COUNTY